Gasteiner

Gasteiner mineral water is sourced from the depths of the high alpine, untouched mountain world of the High Tauern. The minerals and trace elements that it absorbs on its way through the mountains make it one of the purest mineral waters worldwide. Now also available water with a hint of freshly squeezed fruit juice!

SOTI Natural

Soti Natural healthy ready to drink tea is made from organic tea leaves: not from extracts/concentrate, 100% unsweetened, sugar free and zero calories, with clean label and natural taste. It is a great alternative to water - as natural as water but with more health benefits. Thanks to high level of natural antioxidants Soti can be used as slimming tea. Convenient, light packaging makes sugarfree healthy tea something that everyone can always have on hand. SOTI Natural brand was created by Lars Wallentin and Pierre Detry - worldwide known specialist on branding and the manufacturer runs campaign with worldwide influencers.

More than water.
More than tea.

JERSIKA

Jersika's Chips represent absolutely unique potato-chips producing segment: popped-chips. After the heating in a pressure chamber they are rapidly released, under the influence of air they swell and become popped. Made from dried potato pellets, not fried in oil, makes them much healthier than traditional chips and lower in calories. Amazing flavours for the new era chips adventurers!
